FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

LANGE NAMED EMPLOYEE OF MONTH

CHARLESTON--Nancy Lange of Hindsboro, a kitchen laborer in Carman Hall dining service, has been selected Civil Service Employee of the Month at Eastern Illinois University.

Lange, who was recognized for her exemplary performance on the job, was selected from more than 950 full-time civil service employees at Eastern. She has worked for Eastern as a kitchen laborer for five years, and has held jobs in the Gregg Triad and Pemberton Hall dining services.

The only woman kitchen laborer at Eastern, Lange's responsibilities include managing inventory, distributing materials to the cooks and supervising student workers in the dishroom and in the pots and pans area.

Upon her selection, Lange said, "I was shocked. It is really more of a team achievement than an individual achievement, but I feel very honored to receive the award."

Margie Temples, Lange's supervisor, said, "Nancy is an excellent worker and I cannot say enough about her and the level of work she does. She is definitely deserving of this award." Lange said she particularly likes her job because of the opportunity to work with other people.

Lange resides in Hindsboro with her husband, Ken. They have four children: Kevin, who is stationed at Dielson Air Force Base in Alaska; Kendra Weaver of Effingham; Kip and Kirk both of Hindsboro; and five grandchildren, Joshua, Michael, Johnathon, Steven and Austin.
